MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

Council Chamber and City Hall, East side West Street, between Main and Third Streets.

City Council meets First and Third Thursdays of Each Month.

MAYOR.

HON. JOHN G. MOORE.

OFFICE:—CITY HALL.

DEDICATED TO THE BUSINESS MAN.

“Business is business;” stagnant the world without it:
Mechanic or merchant or farmer ne’er doubt it.
Not idleness,—industry the law of our life;
Business legitimate, rivalry honest, not strife:
With character for capital, with cash to help along,
With carefulness and conscience you cannot far go wrong.
Then “live and let live;” the poor drive not from your door
Who number by the million—the wealthy by the score.
‘Tis diamonds make the dude and character the man:
“A man’s a man for a’ that” if he does the best he can.
Go where business takes you; come out pure and clean;
A noble soul ne’er stoops to actions low and mean.
Then sleep with your conscience; let not your conscience sleep,
O’er all the years transactions constant vigils keep.
Over every desk be written, “I will do as I agree;
In all my business dealings no crookedness shall be:
O’er-reaching, fraud, deception shall ne’er rest on me.”
“There is a way that seemeth right”—you’ll be dismayed,
For the wages of sin are always promptly paid.
Have dealt in politics? And bought the floaters’ votes?
And safe in office, from out a thousand throats
Have reaped approval, flattery and applause,
For very violation of good and wholesome laws?
You bought your place with gold and promises; reflect—
You sold your conscience, manhood, self-respect,
Which cannot be redeemed; the spots will not wash out:
Of this transcendent verity there ne’er can be a doubt.
Your office in twentieth story? Nearer hell than heaven,
If in those twenty stories no room for God is given.
Though envy, hate, malice, cut you like a knife,
And countless bitternesses almost wreck your life,
Blind prejudice, the unjust judge, may often hurt;
Then quickly take appeal to heaven’s supreme court.
Be prosperous, be happy, rich in doing good.
Regard humanity one common brotherhood.
With best wishes of the
